Dear son,

Once the campaign
begins,
candidates
don't even have time
to sleep.

They will continue to make public and private speeches.
They will risk
their throat
for causes,
but even if they cough
blood, they cannot stop.

*Meanwhile, candidates
often are just busy
at work to answer
structured and questions.
Their job is also to grant and limit
people from various organizations.*

*By the rules,
only after 1 AM
they can use mobile phones, but no one wants clearly
until 1 AM.*

*Candidates will stand in public
along the streets on 1 AM to grant people who are on their way to work.*

Katayama,
you aren't
in bed yet?

What are you talking about?
He studies until 2 AM everyday. You should get to know your child.

Father

Anyway, tomorrow (Friday tomorrow!) is a holiday.
Why don't you bring him to your grandma's?
He wants to go.

Sure, of course!
Tag along and
see for yourself!

I want to know more about politics—
should you allow me to?

But the world is already changing, and I believe reaching the change will not be too hard for us!

Of course, the change will not happen, simply it will take 2 to 30 years!

Then, you may ask - will you be out of business? Of course, not! However, the size will become smaller, much smaller!

However, just because your physical markets are becoming saturated, it does not mean that your profit margins will fall! In fact, it may very well increase! You will educate yourself in more efficient farming and with our national increase in GDP, you will see an increase in your profit margins!
